

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME
DECISION
CASE OF HIPPEL v. GERMANY
(Application no. 84592/17)
introduced on 15 December 2017

The European Court of Human Rights, sitting on 8 February 2018 in a single-judge formation pursuant to Articles 24 § 2 and 27 of the Convention, has examined the application as submitted. The application refers to Article 6 § 1 of the Convention, Article 8 § 1 of the Convention and Article 14 of the Convention.

As concerns the complaints raised under Article 8 § 1 of the Convention and Article 14 of the Convention, the Court finds that domestic remedies have not been exhausted as required by Article 35 § 1 of the Convention, since the applicant failed to raise before competent domestic authorities, either in form or in substance and in accordance with the applicable procedural requirements, the complaints that were made to the Court.

As concerns the complaints raised under Article 6 § 1 of the Convention, the Court finds in the light of all the material in its possession and in so far as the matters complained of are within its competence, that they do not disclose any appearance of a violation of the rights and freedoms set out in the Convention or the Protocols thereto and that the admissibility criteria set out in Articles 34 and 35 of the Convention have not been met.

The Court declares the application inadmissible
